

The first thing Jesus did before healing, before ministering, before delivering is that He was good to people. Think about that for a moment. We all have an assignment. We all have a ministry. Our ministry starts by being good to people. When goodness flows out of our hearts, it catches people's attention. It causes them to want to know more about what we have. We can say all day long, "I love you", but true love is seen in what we do. If I really love you, I'll be good to you. God said to Abraham, "I will bless you, and you will be a blessing." One key to being blessed is : Are you willing to be a blessing? Are you willing to do good? Look around at who's in your life. Listen to what they are saying. You can't help everyone, but you can help someone. There are people whom God has put in your path who are connected to your destiny. You can lift the fallen. You can be kind to a stranger. As you help others, God will meet your needs.
