

Diana Baudelaire (29), the eldest of three daughters, was raised in a loving home in rural Washington state. She graduated from the University of Washington with a Bachelor of Arts in Philosophy and devoted herself to the care of souls, working as a caregiver and as Music Director of St. Michael's Parish. With an open heart and open mind, she was simultaneously an active and engaged member of an Episcopal, a Roman Catholic, and an LCMS Lutheran parish. She greatly loved serving her Heavenly Father and could often be found at daily Mass or chanting the Divine Office in an empty pew. Finally, feeling her calling could not be fulfilled in the secular world, she applied to CSJB.

Diana comes to CSJB from Camp Cross (Episcopal) in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, where she served in the summer as Music Director, transitioning into a Facilities apprenticeship as camp was winterized. She was received as a Postulant in St. Michael's Chapel on November 14, 2024. She offers her vocation as a sacrifice of thanksgiving and praise for all holy priests.

*"But He knoweth the way that I take: when He hath tried me, I shall come forth as gold.
My foot hath held His steps, His way have I kept, and not declined"- Job 23:10-11*
